Officers | Board of Directors | Class of 2026

Temeka Easter Rice, CDP®, Chair (1st Term):

Temeka Easter Rice is an award-winning Senior Digital Marketing Leader. She leverages her unique marketing and human resources background to help executives and entrepreneurs use the power of storytelling to create memorable and authentic brand experiences that customers and employees will never forget.

With over 20 years of experience in the financial services industry, Temeka has worked for leading brands, including Vanguard, Sallie Mae and Edward Jones, in marketing, brand, social media, relationship management, and more.

Temeka earned undergraduate degrees in Accounting and Business Administration, a Master of Science degree in Human Resource Management and a graduate certificate in Digital Marketing Strategies from Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. In 2018 and 2019, she earned the Governor's Financial Literacy Award and won the Platinum Hermes Creative Award in 2017 and 2018, consecutively. She also was recognized as one of Delaware's Top 40 under 40 in 2015 and recently earned a Certified Diversity Practitioner (CDP®) designation.

A Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay board member since 2019, Temeka serves as the Board Secretary for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Delaware, the Scholarship Committee Chairperson for Emerging Pearls Foundation, and the former Chair of the Girl Scouts of Chesapeake Bay Finance Committee. Temeka is also an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Temeka resides in Wilmington with her husband, George and teenage son, Adrian, and two German Shepherds. Their daughter, Taylor, is a college student and former Girl Scout.

Stacy Conn, 1st Vice Chair (1st Term):

Stacy has been involved with Girl Scouting as a girl, a volunteer and has previously served as her daughter's troop's Cookie Mom. In her spare time, she is the Head of Partner & Product Marketing at Barclays. She has spent much of her distinguished career in marketing, product development, and profit and loss management. She holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Notre Dame and resides in North Wilmington with her family (husband Doc, daughter Mairin, bonus daughter Cassidy, and son Conner). On weekends, you can find her on the soccer fields. In addition to her service to girls and Girl Scouting, Stacy has been a key driver of Barclays' investment in the University of Delaware's Lerner College of Business and Economics' Women's Leadership Forum which focuses on developing a woman's leadership potential. Currently, Stacy is a board member of the Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay and a perennial volunteer at Barclays' Make A Difference Day, which mentors high school students focusing on resume writing and developing a personal brand.

Director-at-Large | Board of Directors | Class of 2026

Vanessa Fisher (1st Term):

Vanessa Fisher is the Director of Student Support Services for Nativity Preparatory School of Wilmington. She devotes her expertise as a behavioral expert to helping students shine and transition into a future filled with endless possibilities.

Vanessa's experience as a case manager, therapist, and social worker has filled her desire to serve, embrace community, and understand the impact of involvement. She understands the power of championing our youth and the need to embrace change.

Vanessa was a Girl Scout and an Alumni of the Gamma Sigma Sigma, a sorority founded by Girl Scouts at her alma mater, Florida A&M University. She is a fellow in the 2023 cohort of Leadership Delaware.

Vanessa resides in Wilmington, DE, with her German Shepherd, Jupiter.

Board Development Committee (BDC) | Members | Class of 2026

Keisha Morris (1st Term):

Keisha Morris is an Organizational Development Practitioner with a local healthcare system. She has over 20 years of experience in curriculum design, instructional content creation, in person and virtual facilitation, change management, strategic planning, and coaching. Keisha is passionate about the growth and development of others and seeks out opportunities to assist them in their lifelong journey of developing into their best selves.

Keisha is a proud alum of Howard University (Washington, DC), where she obtained her Bachelor of Business Administration degree in International Business with a focus in Management. Keisha also has a Master of Arts in Leadership Ministry from Faith International University (Tacoma, WA) and is currently a second year PhD student studying Organizational Leadership at Regent University (Virginia Beach, VA). Keisha is a member of the Board of Directors of the Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay.

Keisha is married and enjoys spending time with her family, friends, and dog (Harley).

Devon Christine Manning (1st Term):

Devon Manning is a Girl Scout Gold Award recipient and is currently the Director of Policy & Planning at the Delaware State Housing Authority. She has been with DSHA since 2010. Most of her work has involved coordinating with public and private partners to develop, implement, manage, and evaluate the effectiveness of housing programs and services designed to accommodate people with special housing needs. For the past three years, she has administered Delaware's emergency rental assistance program, which has provided more than $130 million in rental and utility assistance to Delaware renter households facing economic hardship during the COVID-19 pandemic. Devon holds a bachelor's degree in history from The Ohio State University and a master's degree in public administration from the University of Delaware. She lives in Milton with her husband and their three daughters.
