

Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay Council, Inc.

Girl Scouts®

Contact: Liz Farrell
Communications
& Advocacy Manager
302/544-2688

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 24, 2009

GIRL SCOUTS OF THE CHESAPEAKE BAY COUNCIL, INC., HOSTS “THOMAS THE TANK ENGINE” AT DELAWARE STATE FAIR *Del-One Kidz Zone Tent is Hub for Girl Scout Information and Hospitality

NEWARK, DE -- The Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay Council, Inc., is hosting Thomas the Tank Engine in the Del-One Kidz Zone tent near Gate 3 at the Delaware State Fair in Harrington. Volunteer Girl Scouts and GSCBC staff greet visitors and provide information on Girl Scouting before and after live readings of the Thomas & Friends story, “Thomas Gets His Own Branch Line.”

The GSCBC encourages all Girl Scout alumni and any girls interested in Girl Scouting to visit the tent and sign up with GSCBC. A display table with alumni cards, girl and adult camp brochures, Girl Scout membership information, and other GSCBC materials is located on the north side of the tent. The tent is open from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. from July 23 to August 1.

GSCBC is the Delmarva Peninsula’s leading organization dedicated to building girls of courage, confidence, and character through educational, recreational, and training programs. The Council serves approximately 18,500 girls in grades K-12 in Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia. Approximately 6,000 adult volunteers support the Council in various mentoring and leadership positions. With over 140

Council-sponsored programs and hundreds of Troop-sponsored programs that utilize learning by doing, cooperative learning, and girl-led processes, GSCBC helps girls grow into the leaders of tomorrow.

For more information, contact Liz Farrell, Communications and Advocacy Manager, GSCBC, at lfarrell@cbgsc.org, 302/544-2688, or visit the GSCBC website at www.gscb.org.

###