

GSCB check acceptance guidelines for personal or business checks written to Troops or GSCB

1. All checks for the Girl Scout Cookie Program should be made payable to GSCB.
2. Do not accept starter checks. These are checks without any name or address preprinted on them.
3. All checks should have the Driver's license state and number written on them.
4. Troops should write the Troop and SU number on each check before depositing it.

GSCB check acceptance guidelines for personal or business checks written to Troops or GSCB

1. All checks for the Girl Scout Cookie Program should be made payable to GSCB.
2. Do not accept starter checks. These are checks without any name or address preprinted on them.
3. All checks should have the Driver's license state and number written on them.
4. Troops should write the Troop and SU number on each check before depositing it.

GSCB check acceptance guidelines for personal or business checks written to Troops or GSCB

1. All checks for the Girl Scout Cookie Program should be made payable to GSCB.
2. Do not accept starter checks. These are checks without any name or address preprinted on them.
3. All checks should have the Driver's license state and number written on them.
4. Troops should write the Troop and SU number on each check before depositing it.

GSCB check acceptance guidelines for personal or business checks written to Troops or GSCB

1. All checks for the Girl Scout Cookie Program should be made payable to GSCB.
2. Do not accept starter checks. These are checks without any name or address preprinted on them.
3. All checks should have the Driver's license state and number written on them.
4. Troops should write the Troop and SU number on each check before depositing it.