Dear Friends in Girl Scouting,

As we leave sunny memories of summer behind, where friendships were forged over campfires and kayaks at Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay Summer Camp, or in exploration of the solar system or freshwater ecosystems, we embrace the beauty and potential of new seasons, which also offer opportunities for growth, learning, and leadership through Girl Scout experiences.

In our 2019-2020 Program Guide, you will find over 100 programs to ignite your imagination, from “Welcome to Hogwarts” to “Mystery Crime Lab” to “High Tech Fashion” to “Ghostbusters Academy” to “Engineering Your Tomorrow” and much more.

Being a Girl Scout in the Chesapeake Bay Council is a uniquely inspiring adventure where every G.I.R.L.’s potential as a Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, and Leader™ is applauded and nurtured each day. Whether you are hoping to travel the state or traverse the world, or explore science, technology, engineering, and art opportunities, or hone your entrepreneurial skills, Girl Scouts has it covered, offering well-rounded programs that deliver the essential Girl Scout experience.

Please join us for AMAZING experiences this fall and beyond.

Yours in Girl Scouting,

FORM DUE
November 30, 2019
How do I register for a program?
Follow the instructions to register for a program in the event's description in this guide. If nothing is listed, registration is being handled by Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay. Please use the Event Registration Form (215-PM). You can find this form by clicking “Forms” at the top of www.gscb.org and locating it in the Top Ten Most Frequently Accessed Forms. Please be sure to download the form and then open the file from its saved location if you are emailing this form for registration. The form also appears on Page 43 of this publication and can be printed out and mailed to GSCB, 2225 Old Baltimore Pike, Newark, DE 19702.

The same form is used for troops and individual girls. Girls do not have to attend programs with their entire troop; they may attend individually.

How do I pay for the event/program?
Payment is due at the time of registration. Troop debit cards, Visa/MasterCard/Discover/American Express, and checks are all accepted. Cash may be dropped off at the Northern or Peninsula Resource Centers.

Any registration received after the closing deadline will incur a late fee of $2 for EACH participant listed. Late fee payments do not guarantee entry. This includes any programs/events that are added throughout the year on www.gscb.org.

Financial assistance is available for registered Girl Scouts who would otherwise be unable to attend individual events, council-sponsored activities, and camps. Financial assistance is potentially available for Girl Scout events. To request assistance please complete the Financial Assistance Application 306-FM. For more information, please email membercare@cbgsc.org or call 800-341-4007.

Are events/programs ever canceled?
Yes. Events are typically held rain or shine, unless inclement weather would adversely affect the program. In those cases, participants will be notified of cancellation and/or rescheduling of the program. If the minimum number of participants is not met 14 days prior to the program date, the program will be canceled. If GSCB cancels an event for any reason and cannot place participants in another event of their choice, a full refund will be issued.

However, to cancel your own registration and receive a refund, cancellation and refund requests must be made in writing; 30-days written notice is required to receive 50 percent of registration fees of $5.00 or more per individual. No refunds will be issued if fewer than 30-days written notice is given, except for medical reasons. Refunds for medical reasons will only be processed if notification is made before the event or within one week following the event, accompanied by a doctor's note. No refunds will be issued to individuals who do not show up for a scheduled event. The $25 membership and $15 council service fee are non-refundable.

As a parent or guardian, what can I do to help?
Girl Scouts is a team effort with leaders, girls, parents, and the community collaborating to help your Girl Scout build leadership skills. It’s easy to volunteer by becoming a registered Girl Scout to help support your troop. If you need help registering, renewing your membership, or completing your background screening, please contact membercare@cbgsc.org.

Roles that parents/guardians can take on to make a troop successful include:
- Co-leader
- Product Program Coordinator (coordinates participation in the Fall Product Program or Girl Scout Cookie Program)
- First Aid/CPR trained person
- Troop Treasurer (maintains troop bank account)
- Troop Support Volunteer (Assist with driving, chaperoning and/or programming)
- Emergency Contact (is available in case of an emergency while troop is on a field trip).

How does my daughter’s troop earn money?
Girl Scouts of the Chesapeake Bay offers two annual product programs—the Fall Product Program and the Girl Scout Cookie Program (see pages 10-11 for more information). Proceeds earned through these programs can offset a large part of the cost of Girl Scout activities. Troops may also participate in money earning activities as long as they participate in BOTH council sponsored product programs. Supplemental activities MUST be approved by council.

How can I check my contact information to ensure I get important Girl Scout information?
To update your information:
Go to gscb.org and click “MY GS” or “SIGN IN”
After logging in, click “Member Profile”
Update your family’s information
TIP: This is also where you can go to renew your membership.

Badge vs. Patch: What’s the difference?
Badges are official symbols that indicate an increase in knowledge of skill in a particular subject. Badges can be earned at every age level through the National Program Portfolio. Badges are placed on the front of the sash or vest.

Patches, sometimes called “fun patches” are emblems signifying participation in a Girl Scout activity. Patches are placed on the back of the sash or vest. Think of it as a scrapbook of the Girl Scout experience.
A Parent/Guardian’s Responsibility to Their Girl Scout

- Volunteer with your troop; your co-leader cannot do it alone.
- Make sure your Girl Scout arrives and departs on time for all her meetings and outings; it is recommended to walk her in, and sign her out.
- Notify troop volunteers in advance if your Girl Scout will not be able to attend a meeting or an activity.
- Help your Girl Scout fulfill her troop responsibilities including dues, permission slips, snacks, uniforms, etc.
- Help your Girl Scout work on, and complete her activities.
- Check with your troop volunteers for any paperwork that needs to be completed.
- Give feedback to your co-leaders about your experiences in a positive manner.
- If issues arise, discuss them privately with the appropriate troop volunteer, not in front of the girls.
- Attend council events, parent/guardian meetings, group activities, and special ceremonies.

A Co-Leader’s Responsibility to The Troop

- Follow the Girl Scout Promise and Law.
- Let girls lead—ensure that girls of every age take an active and grade-appropriate role in deciding the what, where, when, why, and how of what they do.
- Create an inclusive environment where girls and families feel welcome and connected to the troop.
- Provide a well-rounded and safe program following Girl Scout Guidelines and Safety Activity Checkpoints.
- Listen to and respect every participant and serve as a role model.
- Utilize volunteer resources such as the Volunteer Toolkit and contact your Service Unit or GSCB when you need support.
- Be trained by the GSCB team in order to have the best experiences.

A Girl’s Responsibility to Her Troop

- Follow the Girl Scout Promise and Law.
- Be willing to take risks and be confident and supportive toward her Girl Scout sisters.
- Attend and participate in meetings and events.
- Listen to others in her troop and show respect for what they are saying.
- Be prepared and conduct herself in a safe manner.
- Respect her co-leaders and other troop volunteers.

In this unique empowerment program, we confront some of the biggest challenges and stereotypes that children and teens face growing up that are not addressed in academic curriculum. These programs offer a place for children and teenagers to process their experiences and feelings with peers through discussion and activities. The foundation of the programs encourages a healthy relationship with yourself that relies on self-worth and self-love, role modeling, and compassionate leadership skills for boys and girls.

Program offerings for girls include Girl Empowered Body Image, Compassionate Leadership for Girls, Sheroes: Female Role Models Throughout History, and Comic Book Villains and Lessons on Morality.

Built around entrepreneurship, Girl Scout Product Programs are an integral part of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience. Girls who participate in these programs develop five essential life skills:
