A Mandala is designed to offer a visual balance of elements that symbolize harmony and unity. Go outside and listen to the sounds of nature and make a mandala using dandelion heads.

Steps:

1. Trace a circle on a piece of paper.
2. Draw lines on a circle $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{4}$ and then $\frac{1}{8}$, like a pizza.
3. Find a dandelion with all the white floaties (seeds) removed.
4. Dab the dandelion in paint.
5. Make prints in a pattern on the pizza lines.
6. Send us a photo and tell us all the nature sounds you heard.
