TO: Our Girl Scout Customers

RE: Issues with Back Orders and Shipping

Girl Scout merchandise is currently out of stock on certain products, most importantly right now uniforms, due to ongoing pandemic related issues.

The pandemic continues to impact our vendors as well as transportation carriers. This problem is prevalent throughout the country and effecting most business as communicated in the news. This includes our vendors not being able to get needed supplies to make our product in a timely fashion, staffing shortages, and covid restrictions at facilities.

We are making every effort to improve the supply chain as soon as possible and we apologize for this inconvenience.
