

Girl Scout Week

Since it's founding in 1912, Girl Scouts has appreciated the support of religious organizations.

Together, we have enriched the spiritual lives of Girl Scout members, each of whom strives from the perspective of their own personal beliefs to live up to the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

Because of this powerful partnership, Girl Scouts have become stronger members of their own faith, and girls from every faith have felt welcome in Girl Scouting.

Thank you for supporting Girl Scouts in your congregation.

Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be,
honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong,
responsible for what I say and do,
and to,
respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place,
and be a sister to every Girl Scout.
