GSCB Permission Waiver Form for Activities and Trips

This form is required for all participating members for high-risk activities, field trips/day trips, and travel. Permission, by a parent or guardian, must be given for each Girl Scout to participate in the activity below. Participants without permission/waiver may not be transported from the departure location and may not participate in the activity. In addition to this form, the participant must have a GSCB Health History Form for Youth and Adults on file. For international travel, this form must accompany the GSCB International Travel Health History Form and the GSCB Permission to Travel for Minors.
